GUEST & GUIDANCE LECTURE IN THE SUBJECT OF BUSINESS ECONOMICS

REPORT

The EMAC Zone of Department of Bachelor of Commerce and Department of Management Studies has organised a Guest & Guidance Lecture in the subject of Business Economics for SYBCOM & SYBMS on Thursday, 27th January, 2022 from 9:30 am to 10:30 am. The webinar was organized on Zoom platform. Online feedback of the guest lecture was also taken.

The organizing members of the webinar were Prof. Umesh Kabadi, and Prof. Sharlet Bhaskar from Department of Management Studies and EMAC Zone of Bachelor of Commerce. The webinar began with a brief introduction of the chief guest Mr. Nikhil Samant who is from a corporate background in finance.

Outcome: The main motive of this guest lecture was to make students understand some basic economic concepts and to understand new perspectives and opinions. Around 60 students participated in this guest lecture. Students participated enthusiastically in this lecture and were looking forward to such sessions in future. It ended with a question and answer session, a pleasant vote of thanks by Prof. Umesh Kabadi.

Report on Webinar "World and Indian Cinema" conducted by the Department of Multimedia and Mass Communication and Media
World Club on 12th August, 2021

Chandrabhan Sharma College of Arts, Science & Commerce organized a One day National level Webinar on "World and Indian Cinema" with the objective to understand the historical development of cinema in the context of Indian society.

The resource person for the webinar was Mr. Omkar Patnekar, Production Manager CMK Studios

The programme started with an opening remark delivered by Ms. Manali Naik, Assistant Professor, Department of Multimedia and Mass Communication and Co-ordinator of the Department, followed by welcome address from Ms. Vinita Khedwal Assistant Professor, Department of Multimedia and Mass Communication.

To provide a coherent overview of the development of popular cinema, with an emphasis on Hindi films produced in Bombay and the film produced out in the foreign country. The objective is to contextualise the cinema and to study closely particular films so students will be able to analyse critically key films for the study of Indian film and to understand the historical development of this cinema in the context of Indian society.

Prof. Patnekar concluded the session with a round of discussion and vote of thanks by Ms. Vinita Khedwal Assistant Professor, Department of Mass Media.

The webinar was attended by around 34 participants.

Outcome: The students got to know about the world and Indian Cinema in detail.

Report on Webinar "An Overview on Anchoring, Radio Industry and Podcasting" conducted by the Department of Multimedia and Mass Communication and Media World Club on 15th January, 2022

Chandrabhan Sharma College of Arts, Science & Commerce organized a One day National level Webinar on "An Overview on Anchoring, Radio Industry and Podcasting" with the objective to understand the working of the industry and various jobs availability.

The resource person for the webinar was Mr. Shivam Rajesh Sharma VJ and Content Writer

The programme started with an opening remark delivered by Ms. Manali Naik, Assistant Professor, Department of Multimedia and Mass Communication and Co-ordinator of the Department, followed by welcome address from Ms. Vency Nadar Assistant Professor, Department of Multimedia and Mass Communication.

Familiarity keeps the customers come back and keeps your company in their minds. A podcast is a more personal way to reach out to new potential customers. They get a better idea of your values and way of running the business. Your audience also has more flexibility on how they listen to the podcast.

Mr. Sharma concluded the session with a round of discussion and vote of thanks by Ms. Vency Nadar Assistant Professor, Department of Mass Media.

The webinar was attended by around 54 participants.

Outcome: The students got to know about radio, anchoring and more about that particular field.
