- (i) The college shall provide a room for running the classes and shall adequately maintain all the classroom infrastructure.
- (ii) The college should also take steps to ensure that attrition is kept in check and should involve the Times Group if at any stage they foresee any problem of attendance.
- (iii) The college will be responsible for promoting the spoken English classes amongst the target learners.
- (iv) The college should conduct three to four batches for the course and enroll 10-15 online learners in a batch. Depending on the availability and convenience of volunteers and in consultation with the Times Group the college can schedule the batch timings.
- (v) The college should hold the spoken English classes on six days a week - Monday to Saturday.
- (vi) The college should promote a relationship of trust and mutual understanding with the volunteers and take care of their reasonable needs. If at any stage the college foresees a deterioration in the relationship, the college should immediately make the Times Group representative aware.

2.1. B College - Curriculum development:

- (i) The CSR dept team members will be visiting the college premises to evaluate the classes. The college has to coordinate this and ensure that the team members do not face any inconvenience. The college should also facilitate interactions between the curriculum developers and learners, teachers and volunteers whenever required.
- (ii) The college might be required to conduct small surveys amongst the learners, teachers or volunteers. The college should complete these tasks proficiently and on time.

2.1. C College - Volunteers:

- (i) After the volunteer is assigned with the college, the college shall coordinate daily with the volunteers regarding the classes.

- (i) The Times Group will be funding some of the project expenses as mentioned in the Project Funding section / Clause 5.
- (ii) The Times Group will also be responsible for the training of the college Teaching staff (as per their availability and our training cycle) and that of the volunteers for the delivery of the spoken English training.
- (iii) The Times Group will be providing the curriculum and all the course material. The curriculum is being developed in collaboration with a reputed spoken English curriculum developer.
- (iv) The Times Group will be selecting and training volunteers to teach spoken English. Every volunteer will take three classes for the same batch in a week and will take these classes on alternate days. Hence two volunteers will together teach one batch. The selected and trained volunteers will then be assigned to the college to teach a certain batch of learners. Or there could be a case wherein one volunteer teaches all 6 days of the batch.

2.2. B The Times Group - Volunteers:

- (i) The Times Group has convinced like minded persons of the Society to join the Initiative as volunteers. These volunteers are free individuals having no connection of any kind contractual or otherwise with The Times Group, who of their own free will and without any remuneration / fee / payment of any kind whatsoever have decided to selflessly give their services as teachers to teach English Language to the underprivileged youth/ learners. The Times Group will develop formal association with volunteers and assign them classes based on their area and times preference. The services of the volunteers for the initiative are planned in a manner that their valuable contribution is utilized to the maximum for the cause.
- (ii) Times Group will provide a set of 2 volunteers to the college for conducting classes of a particular batch on alternative days. Or one volunteer for all 6 days.
- (iii) The number of batches to be delivered by set of volunteers will be decided by Times Group. This also means that Times Group can assign as many number of volunteers to the college as they deem fit, in consultation with the college.
