WEBINAR ON 'THE PRIMERAS - THE YOUNG WOMEN ON THE THRESHOLD OF ENTERING THE WORKFORCE'

REPORT

The Women's Development Cell of Chandrabhan Sharma College, in collaboration with The Maharashtra Women's Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (WICCI) Coaching Council, successfully organized a webinar titled "The Primeras - The Young Women On The Threshold Of Entering The Workforce". The webinar took place on Thursday, June 24, 2021, from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm, and was conducted on the Zoom platform. Students registered online and a WhatsApp group was created for communication purposes. Attendance was taken, and feedback from the participants was collected.

The webinar was facilitated by WDC members Mrs. Sharlet Bhaskar, Mr. Krishnakant Pandey, and Mr. Arun Vishwakarma. Ms. Cecilia from WICCI provided a brief introduction of the guest speakers, Milind Thatte, the Managing Director of Procter & Gamble Health Limited, and Meenu Bhatia, the Co-Founder of VANS Skilling and Advisory—a consulting firm specializing in business transformation projects across various stages.

The main objective of the webinar was to address the concerns of young women who are about to enter the workforce, particularly those who are anxious and stressed about the impact of COVID-19 on their employability. A total of 95 students registered for and actively participated in the webinar, expressing great enthusiasm and motivation. The event received positive feedback, and the students expressed their eagerness for similar sessions in the future. The webinar concluded with a question-and-answer session, followed by a gracious vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Cecilia.

INTER COLLEGIATE ONLINE ESSAY COMPETITION ON “THE IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATION FOR GIRLS”
REPORT

The Women Development Cell and EMAC Zone of the Bachelor of Commerce program successfully organized an online Inter Collegiate Essay Competition on “The importance of education for girls” conducted on 8th September, 2021. The competition details and guidelines were shared with the students via WhatsApp on 2nd September 2021, and a dedicated drive was created for participants to submit their essays online. Student registrations were conducted online, and a WhatsApp group was created for effective communication.

The webinar was coordinated by members of EMAC and WDC, namely Mrs. Sharlet Bhaskar, Mr. Krishnakant Pandey, and Mr. Arun Vishwakarma. The essays were evaluated by Ms. Prajakta Mahajan, a faculty member from our Junior College. Following the judging process, prizes were awarded to the winners. Ms. Dolly Makhija from Vivekanand College secured the 1st prize, while the 2nd prize was won by Kulsum Khan from CSC College. Fatima Shaikh and Rakesh Shetty, both from CSC College and Vartak College respectively, were honored with the 3rd prize.

The primary objective of this competition was to foster creativity and promote innovative and critical thinking among students through essay writing. It provided a platform for participants to showcase their reading, thinking, and writing skills in a cohesive manner. A total of 30 students from various colleges registered and actively participated in the competition, displaying high motivation and enthusiasm. The event garnered great success, and the students expressed their anticipation for similar competitions in the future.

Blood Donation Camp by Runi Foundation; volunteered

On 28th November, a blood donation camp was organised by the social organization, Runi Foundation, near IIT Market, Powai. The campaign received tremendous support as over 200 youth donated blood in view of their social responsibility. The camp was jointly organized by the Trauma Health Care Center of Balasaheb Thackeray Hospital.

At a time when Maharashtra and the country are facing a COVID-19 crisis, the health administration has appealed to public bodies, organizations, and associations to organize blood donation camps to meet the shortage of blood in hospitals.

Accordingly, the Runi Foundation, recognizing its social responsibility here, started this project. Young blood-donors have responded spontaneously. This is the first year of the Runi Foundation and the response from the citizens in the first attempt is remarkable. Foundation President Sagar Jadhav, Anil Bansode, Working President Nitin Bhalerao, Secretary and Foundation Treasurer Viraj Bhalerao said that we will keep coming up with various public utility projects.

Board Vice President Mahendra Mulay, Deputy Secretary Rajesh Bansode, Deputy Treasurer Mayu Bansode, Vikas Nimbalka, Rohit Sawant, Cheta Bansode, Arun Wadekar, Rahul Ghagre, Avinash Jadhav, Rahul Jadhav made special efforts to make the event a success.

'Smart Girl Program' organized by CBS College

From 22nd to 27th November, the Women Development Cell (WDC) of Chandrabhan Sharma College (CBS) in collaboration with Bhartiya Jain Sanghatana (BJS) organized a one-week online webinar on the 'Smart Girl Program - To be Happy! To be Strong!' from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM each day. The week-long training webinar was conducted by an expert trainer, Meghna Jain.

During the program, students freely interacted with the trainer and discussed varied topics. All the girl students participated in this webinar wholeheartedly and went back with a new experience and hope.

Chandrabhan Sharma College made an effort to make a strong kernel of gender sensitization. The main motive of this webinar was to transform the students in terms of Self-Awareness, Self-Esteem and Self-Defense, Communication and Relationships, Friendship and Temptation, Choices and Decisions along with

WEBINAR ON “SMART GIRL: TO BE HAPPY! TO BE STRONG!”

REPORT

The Department of Management Studies and Women Development Cell successfully organized a Smart Girl Program Session from 8th to 13th February 2022. The session was conducted by Ms. Shubha, an experienced trainer from Bhartiya Jain Sanghatana, who has been actively involved in empowering young girls through her sessions.

The primary aim of the program was to provide effective life skill education to enhance the capabilities of young girls. The key objectives focused on promoting self-awareness, self-esteem, and overall personal development of the participants. The session commenced with a warm introduction of the speaker, Ms. Shubha, by Mrs. Neelam Agarwal, a faculty member, who also extended a warm welcome to the principal, Dr. Pratima Singh, and all the participants. Dr. Pratima Singh, the principal, greeted the participants and commended the organizing committee for the positive response received. Ms. Shubha delivered an insightful session, benefiting all the participants. The program concluded with a formal vote of thanks by Mrs. Neelam Agarwal, expressing gratitude to all involved.

A total of 42 students actively participated in the certification program, further enriching their knowledge and skills in the process.

SESSION ON “BREAST CANCER AND CERVICAL CANCER - SIGNS & SYMPTOMS”

REPORT

The Women Development Cell (WDC) of Chandrabhan Sharma College, in collaboration with the Sri Satya Sai Seva organization, successfully conducted a one-day program on Friday, 18th February, 2022, focusing on the topic 'Breast Cancer and Cervical Cancer - Signs & Symptoms' to raise awareness about these critical health issues. The resource person for this educational session was Mrs. Jayalakshmi Krishnan, a trustee of the Vasantha Memorial Cancer Trust.

The program received wholehearted support from the college's Principal, Dr. Pratima Singh, as well as the WDC convener, Mrs. Sharlet Bhaskar, and other WDC members, including Ms. Smita Junnarkar, Mr. Krishnakant Pandey, and Mr. Arun Vishwakarma. The session commenced with a warm welcome by TYBCOM student Ms. Alisha Benny, who introduced the guest speaker, Ms. Jayalakshmi Krishnan. Dr. Pratima Singh delivered a welcome speech, setting the stage for the informative session. During the program, Ms. Jayalakshmi Krishnan provided an overview of the causes, prevention, and early detection of breast and cervical cancer. She also demonstrated a breast self-examination on a dummy, emphasizing the importance of self-exams at home. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by WDC convener, Ms. Sharlet Bhaskar. The primary objective of this session was to raise awareness among college students and faculty members regarding the signs, symptoms, risk factors, prevention, and early detection of these cancers. A total of 72 students, along with faculty members, actively participated in the webinar, gaining new knowledge and hope as they left the session.

WEBINAR ON “WEALTH MANAGEMENT”

REPORT

In the effort to spread financial literacy awareness to girl students, the Women Development Cell (WDC) and Bachelor of Commerce in association with Financial Planning Academy organised an Investor Awareness Program exclusively for all girls on Tuesday, 8th March, 2022 from 11.00 am-12.00 pm on the topic ‘Wealth Management’. The resource person for this education session was Mr. Satvir Chopra.

This webinar was organised by the convener of WDC, Mrs. Sharlet Bhaskar and the WDC members of the college, Ms. Smita Junnarkar, Mr. Krishnakant Pandey and Mr Arun Vishwakarma. The program began with a warm welcome to all the participants by SYBCOM student Shreyas Lingsur along with the introduction of the guest Mr. Satvir Chopra. This was followed by the session by Mr. Satvir Chopra. He gave the students an overview of financial products, concepts and risks and the confidence to become more aware of financial risks and opportunities, to make informed choices, to know where to go for help, and to take other effective actions to improve their financial well-being. The webinar ended with a vote of thanks by SYBCOM student Shreyas Lingsur.

Outcome: The main objective of this session was to create awareness and motivate girls to become financially independent and lead more fulfilling lives. In total 53 students participated in this webinar whole heartedly and went back with a new learning and hope.

INTER-COLLEGIATE “QUIZ COMPETITION”

REPORT

On Tuesday, 8th March 2022, an Intercollegiate “Quiz Competition” was jointly organized by the Women Development Cell (WDC) and Bachelor of Commerce in honour of International Women's Day. E-certificates were awarded to participants who scored 40% and above. The online quiz competition was coordinated by Mrs. Sharlet Bhaskar, the convener of WDC, along with WDC members Ms. Smita Junnarkar, Mr. Krishnakant Pandey, and Mr. Arun Vishwakarma. The quiz competition took place through the following link: <https://forms.gle/6q8NMTkRv4p7q5Cr9>.

The primary goal of this event was to assess the participants' knowledge in both academic and non-academic areas while introducing them to the benefits of quizzes and the objectivity of the questions. The competition garnered an overwhelming response, with 116 participants from various colleges taking part and receiving E-certificates.

INAUGURAL SESSION "SANITARY NAPKIN VENDING MACHINES"

REPORT

In an effort to promote sanitation and hygiene, the Women Development Cell (WDC) at Chandrabhan Sharma College, in collaboration with the Rotaract Club of Powai, successfully inaugurated and installed three sanitary napkin vending machines. These machines are conveniently placed in the girl's washrooms on the first, fifth, and seventh floors, and the inauguration took place on Tuesday, 22nd February 2022.

The vending machines offer a sanitary pad for a nominal price of Rs. 5. The funding for these machines was a joint effort, with partial contributions from the college management and the Rotaract Club. The primary objective behind this initiative was to enhance cleanliness, hygiene, and comfort for the female students. The machines were inaugurated by Principal Dr. Pratima Singh, along with a volunteer from the Rotaract Club.
