REPORT ON ONLINE QUIZ ON YOGA AWARENESS

Yoga has recently become a very popular exercise form not just in the country, but worldwide. Yoga has benefits for the body and the mind and is an inexpensive, convenient, and effective exercise form. June 21 is celebrated as International Yoga Day, but as we celebrate and observe the day when the whole world is fighting the COVID-19 pandemic, Government of India, has started a campaign called "Yoga at Home, Yoga with Family", to encourage the practice of Yoga to counter the effects of the viral infection, as well as to stay healthy overall. So seeing to this Chandrabhan Sharma College of Arts, Science & Commerce IQAC Cell in association with Library and Information Centre organizes 6th International Yoga Day online Yoga Quiz Awareness. There were 20 questions given to solve each question carry 2 marks with no registration fees, received around 100+ responses from the participants. E-certificates will be issued if the score is above 50 %. The quiz will provide knowledge about the International Day of Yoga, its past observances, and several initiatives conducted every year by the government.
