LIBRARY AND INFORMATION CENTRE

Library plays an important role in any educational institution as a heart or as a pillar for making society as well as nation better. As Sidney Sheldon perfectly describes “Libraries store the energy that fuels the imagination. They open up windows to the world and inspire us to explore and achieve, and contribute to improving our quality of life.”

Every year, the library department organizes several events to foster reading habits among students and encourage their engagement with the library. The following events were organized during the academic year 2022-23

Guest Lecture on “Importance of Reading Habits”

The Library and Information Centre of Chandrabhan Sharma College hosted a guest lecture on the importance of reading habits on 6th July, 2022. The lecture, organized in honor of National Reading Day, aimed to instill reading habits among students. The speaker, Tejaswini Pathwardan, Founder and Director of OPEN MINDS Productions discussed the benefits of reading, including mental development, creativity, vocabulary, and communication skills. The interactive session helped students build a positive attitude towards reading and motivated them to re-discover reading habits. Over 80 students attended this lecture.

Library Orientation Programme

Library Orientation was organized for First Year Students from August 2nd to 6th, 2022. The program aimed to educate students about the library's resources, facilities, and accessing information efficiently. Around 250 students attended the orientation program, which covered the library's establishment, collection types, seating capacity, vision, objectives, rules, and regulations. The library has a vast collection of books, including textbooks, reference books, dictionaries, encyclopedias, and competitive exam books. The program also covered services like circulation, ICT, reference, book bank, newspaper clipping, and open access facilities. Students learned about N-list, N-List registration details, how to access old question papers, university syllabus, and open free e-resources links. The library blog was also discussed, with events like orientation, essay writing competitions, guest lectures, book exhibitions, and book reviews.
